ICA CLUB NIGHTS AND LIVE MUSIC FOR MAY 2011

Junior Aspirin Records Club Night
Friday 6 May, 7.30pm – 11pm, £5
The Junior Aspirin Records Night features live sets from Invisible Polytechnic, performing Terry Riley's In C, and Socrates that practiçes music performing metagothic tracks from their new album BAT. In C was written in 1964 by Terry Riley, one of the founding fathers of minimalism, and is considered one of the most significant works of 20th century classical music. Invisible Polytechnic are a loosely classical ensemble featuring a custom built analogue synthesizer called Misty. Both bands are promoting new vinyl LP releases on Junior Aspirin Records, the artist-run record label co-founded in 2002 by Andy Cooke, *Freize'*s Dan Fox and Nathaniel Mellors. This is the second of the ICA's music events programmed by Nathaniel Mellors whose ICA exhibition continues until 15 May.

Well Rounded Records Club Night
Friday 13 May, 9pm – 2am, £5
UK underground dance music label Well Rounded Records presents a club night to mark the final weekend of Nathaniel Mellors' exhibition Ourhouse. The night includes DJ sets from Deadboy (Well Rounded Records / Numbers) and label-founder Donga plus live sets from Bass Clef & Hounds of Hate. A rising star on the UK underground dance scene, Well Rounded Records was formed in 2009 and saw immediate success with Deadboy's U Cheated 12", and the trend defining R&B refix series of Cash Antics EPs. There followed a sold-out string of further releases from CRST, Ultrasound, Hackman, Submerse, Littlefoot and Donga and Blake. This is the third and final of the ICA's music events programmed by Nathaniel Mellors. http://www.myspace.com/wellroundedrecords
